Review of Yloiu-Uu y Policy

1078. SHRI R, MOHANARANGAM Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleas ed to state-

fa) whether all the recommendation* of th_e Sukh;inioy Chakravarty Committee on review of monetary policy of Government have bee_n studied by Government;

(b) if >.o, how many of the recommendations (lave been imp'emented;

(c) whether it is $_a$ fuel that there ha* been a paradox in the matter of priority sector, i.e. on the one side the Reserve Bank of India is very stern in achieving th_e targets by the priority sector while the Sukhamoy Chakravarty has recommended against lendings to priority sector; and

(d) if so, ,what are the details in this regard'

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JA NARDHAN POOJAR1); (a) and (b) Government have studied [he various re commendations made by the Chakravarty Committee to Review the Working of the Monetary System. Government have al ready announced in the Budget- for 1986-87 acceptance, i_n principle, of the Commin "tmendations in regard to $chattg_e$ in the concept of budgetary deficit and setting overall monetary targets which can be monitored, for which an exercise to develop operationally meaningful targets is being undertaken on an experimen-f;it bails.

(c) There is n_0 paradox. I, i_s not $_a$ fact that Chakravarty Committee has made any recommendations against leadings to the priority sector. The Committee ha-, in fact, recommended that the credit delivery system should be strengthened with a view to provide adequate and timely fit. to target groups covered under priori*,; sector lending $_{anc}$| [hat this should be given the highest priority. Recommendations of Chakravarty Committee are not at variance with the approach of the Reserve Bank of India to bank lending to priority sectoi.

(d) Do»s not arise.
